

TO LECTURE: Prof. Paul Tillich of Harvard University will inaugurate the Henry J. Van Dyke Lectures on religion and life Saturday at 8 p.m. at Spencer Memorial Church, Remsen St. at Boro Hall. His subject will be "The Religious Dimension of Contemporary Culture."

Victorious VFW Flag Hoisted

In the afternoon of the fourth annual victory dinner of the Kings County Veterans of Foreign Wars Softball League, the flag symbolic of the championship won by Frank A. Longhito Post was raised outside the newly dedicated headquarters of Staff Sgt. Vincent J. Barbella Post, 1405 Utica Ave., where the affair was held. It was the first affair in the new clubhouse.

The flagpole on which the pennant was hoisted formerly stood in centerfield of Ebbets Field. It was donated to Barbella Post, for its new club house by the Kratter Corp., purchasers of the former home of the Dodgers for an apartment project.

Longhito Post was fittingly named for winning both the Western division and overall crown this season. Atene Post was also honored for capturing the Eastern mantle, only to lose to Longhito in the play-off of the divisional winners for the league title.

Award to Garthner. Charles H. Garthner, chairman of the league and manager of Atene Post, was presented a special plaque in appreciation of the meritorious and efficient manner in which he conducted the tourney and for his exemplary leadership. The Friedman Sporting Goods Co. of Flatbush was the donor of the trophy.

James Bove, who piloted Longhito Post to the coveted diadem was well rewarded, receiving the manager of the year trophy. The batboys were also remembered with Oscars.

Russ Kriete, who was master of ceremonies of the affair Saturday night, announced that the Veterans were conducting a bowling tourney, which opens tonight on the Park Slope lanes, Union St. and Seventh Ave., with six teams. They include two units each from Stenec and Corrigan-Kiernan Posts, and Rankin Healy and Cronin-Leesha Posts.

Murphy Speaks. The speakers at the dinner included County Commander Bill Cross, chairman Garthner and Jimmy Murphy, sports columnist. Commander Cross distributed the awards.

In addition to Manager Bove, the Longhito players who received championship trophies were Anthony Spinelli, Peter Kitsakos, Nicholas Rivanon, Charles Camello, Anthony Camello, Alphonse Orlandi, Arthur Varrone, Theodore Kuzianik, Angelo Fasolin, Frank Imperatrice, Al Dorazio, Edward Perpetua, Cosmo Camia, Peter Perotta, Peter Querlia, Alfonso Malagona, Alfonse Montella, Thomas Gambara, Biagio Spinelli.

The Atene players who received divisional winning title trophies were Mannager Garthner, George Celotti, Ross Lupo, Bob Brown, Dick Brown, Joe Caruso, Carmine Caruso, Ben Currao, Augie Bratti, Louis Avella, Dan Peraza, H. Prince, John Hickey, Ernie Guglielmo, Anthony Lupo, John Calucci, Amabile Savio, John Raniero, James Olivia and Carmine Costantino, P. Rizzo.

The bat boys who got Oscars for their efforts were Emil Spinelli, Longhito Post; Anthony Lupo, Atene Post; Bruce Bastiansen, Cronin-Leesha Post; Michael and Thomas Kellher, Stenec Post; Thomas Godfrey, Corrigan-Kiernan; James Michael Jacobs, Fighting Fourteenth Post; Arthur Penza, Rankin-Healy Post; Rolf Hendrickson Jr., Paris-Torre Post; Thomas Houston, Barbella Post.

Church Group To Hear of U.N.

"The U.N.—Is It Meeting the Challenge of World Crisis?" will be the subject of an address Wednesday at 8:30 p.m. to the Fortnightly Club of the First Unitarian Church, 50 Monroe Pl.

The speaker will be Rose K. Edelman, past president of the Flatbush League of Women Voters and for eight years chairman of that group's foreign policy committee.
