

Institute Plans Residence

The Maimonides Institute for Exceptional Children will break ground on Aug. 14 for a $750,000 residence hall on its 20-acre Jamaica Bay campus in Far Rockaway. The institute was established seven years ago on the former Louis Heinsheimer estate to train and rehabilitate mentally handicapped and emotionally disturbed children. It is nonsectarian.

The New York Times

Published: July 24, 1966

Copyright © The New York Times